

Restriction of Hazardous Substances (RoHS) Statement of Compliance

April 27, 2005

To Our Valued Customers:

Brown Metals Company is a distributor, and thus, does not melt or produce any of the materials sold to our customers. Brown Metals Company does not knowingly add or expose these materials to any of the hazardous substances (lead, mercury, cadmium, hexavalent chromium, polybrominated biphenyls, polybrominated diphenyl ether) listed within the EU RoHS Directive. As cited in statements from our vendors, the materials sold by Brown Metals Company do not exceed allowed levels of these substances, and therefore, the materials are compliant with the EU RoHS directive.

Statements of Compliance from our vendors can be found in the Support Knowledgebase on our website (www.brownmetals.com). Please use these vendor statements as supplemental support to this statement.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.
